1.1 Disclaimer

The Bidders shall take into account that the answers provided by the Procuring Entity will be aimed to ease the understanding of the interpretation of the Tender Documents and solve those Bidders' doubts to the extent possible so that they may properly draft their bids. In any case, these answers under no circumstances may substitute the content of the Tender Documents and hence Bidders will always have to consult the referred to documents and fulfil the requirements set forth thereunder. In case that, due to any error, there would be any discrepancy between the answers provided by the Procuring Entity and the content of these documents, the Bidders, without prejudice to the fact of being able to obtain from the Procuring Entity the relevant clarifications within the timeframe thereto, shall have to fulfil the requirements set forth by the Tender Documents.

14	July 15 th , 2014	In Section 3.1.1.6 of the document DECIPHER_InvitationToTender it is specified the content of Envelope B . Is there any template available?	No, there is no template. However, taking into account the numerous requests in this sense, with the exclusive objective to be of support to the bidders when putting together their proposals, the Procuring Entity is making available an example of template (DECIPHER_Envelope_B_template_en_cat_es.doc) that could be used for the Technical offer document (Envelope B). Please consider this template just as an example since it is not mandatory to make use of it.
15	July 15 th , 2014	In the English version of the document DECIPHER_InvitationToTender and more specifically in the Section 3.1.1.6 when describing how the Envelope B must be presented it is mentioned that the “Arial” font should be no smaller than 10 point. On the other hand in both the Catalan and the Spanish version of the document it appears that the “Arial” font should be greater than 10 point, could you please clarify what “Arial” font point is allowed to use?	As specified in the section 6.3.1 of the document DECIPHER_InvitationToTender “The English version of the ITT as well as of any other document of the DECIPHER PCP Procedure shall prevail over any other version of such documents. “ According to this, the Envelope B must be presented in “Arial” font no smaller than 10 point, that is in “Arial” font of at least 10 point or bigger. The translation of the referred sentence can be improved as follow: CAT: El document s’ha de presentar en fulls din-a-4 a una cara, amb font Arial igual o superior a 10 punts, interlineat simple i amb els marges de 2,5 cm. ES: El documento debe presentarse en hojas DIN A4 a una cara, con fuente Arial igual o superior a 10 puntos, interlineado simple y márgenes de 2,5 cm.
